ABOUT SUSAN:

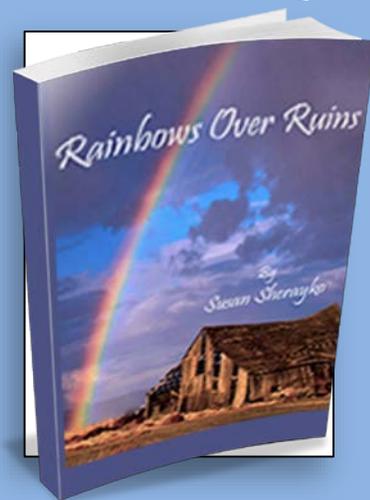

Susan Sherayko is known for the support she provides others as they rebuild their lives after experiencing significant loss. Susan guides them through a creative thought process that she used herself after a landslide destroyed her home. Susan now hosts and produces a podcast series, "Rebuilding Your Life: Moving from Disaster to Prosperity."

By providing a mix of unconditional support, accountability, and guidance with a touch of cheerleader, Susan wants you to clear the way to become the most successful person you desire to be. Susan's goal is to help you get the outcomes you want and have fun doing it. She utilizes her training in psychosynthesis, the knowledge gained as she became an empowered spiritual life coach, and techniques learned with Bob Proctor and LifeSuccess Productions and Noah St. John at the Success Clinic to make this possible.

"It is my goal to raise your awareness and provide tools you can use to live the creative process, to help you see that you have only to ask in the right way and it is given, and to help you to know the joy of creating your legacy. You can accept where you are even as you envision an improved future. You can choose Rainbows Over Ruins."

Part of the creative world for most of her career, Susan Sherayko is an Emmy nominated producer, television executive and author of Rainbows Over Ruins. Additionally, Susan has studied energetic principles for over 35 years, focusing on the study of creative consciousness.

Susan lives with her husband, horses and dogs on a 5 acre ranch with a small frontier town they created when they rebuilt after a landslide. When not exploring or supporting others through the creative process, Susan relishes the basic pleasures of life - enjoying her family, the views from her ranch and gardens, and the companionship of her animals.

Latest Book Release:

Throughout this inner travelogue, Susan shares experiences that will help you open your mind and provide tools you can use to live the creative process. Whatever circumstances or events surround you, you will find this to be a powerful process to move from where you are to where you want to be.
